WORD WAR

(English Debate)

Event Description: Decades of academic research have proven that the benefits that occur as a result of engaging in the debate are numerous. Debate provides experiences that are conducive to life-changing, cognitive, and presentational skills. In addition, through debate debaters acquire unique educational benefits as they learn and polish skills far beyond what can be learned in any other setting. At the very least, debate helps learners to see the power of deploying rational, reasoned arguments and compelling evidence in action. It enables them to elucidate their standpoint by utilizing rhetorical eloquence. It instills in debaters a great sense of poise and confidence. It teaches them the skills of researching, organizing, and compellingly presenting the information.

Registration: 300/-

Team Size: Individual

Rules

- The competition will be held offline.
- Language to be used in the debate will be English.
- The students will participate in the group of two. One 'for' and one 'against' the topic.
- Time allotted to each participant will be minimum 2 minutes and maximum 3 minutes.
- Registration for the competition is Rs 300 for individual participation.
- Attractive prizes will be given to the winners.

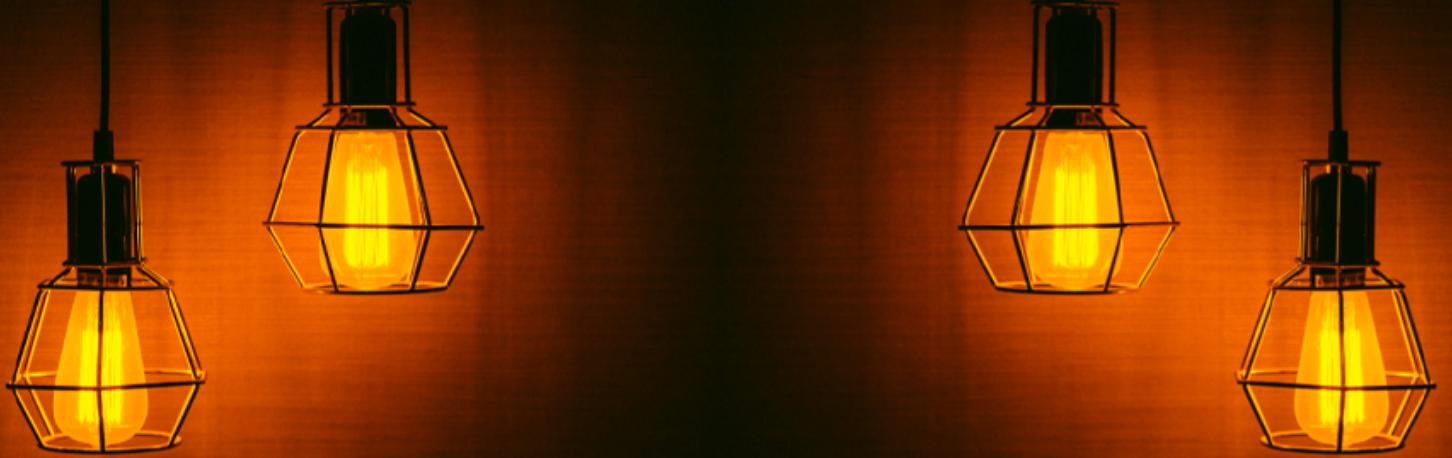

Poetry Party

Event Description: Poetry has always been a part of human life. It is an art that has existed in man's soul and spirit since the beginning of time. Poet always writes about their personal life and experiences. They write because they have an indispensable desire in their heart to express their ideas to objectify their poetic philosophy about life.

The English poet Shelly said, "A poem is the very image of life expressed in its eternal truth...". The profound truth in this line written by Shelly can be seen in the poetry of all the classical poets, from Homer to Shakespeare. The writing of great poetry has been the primary vehicle for expressing one's thoughts, observations, historical events, and various philosophies from different perspectives about life.

Registration: 300/-

Team Size: Individual

Rules

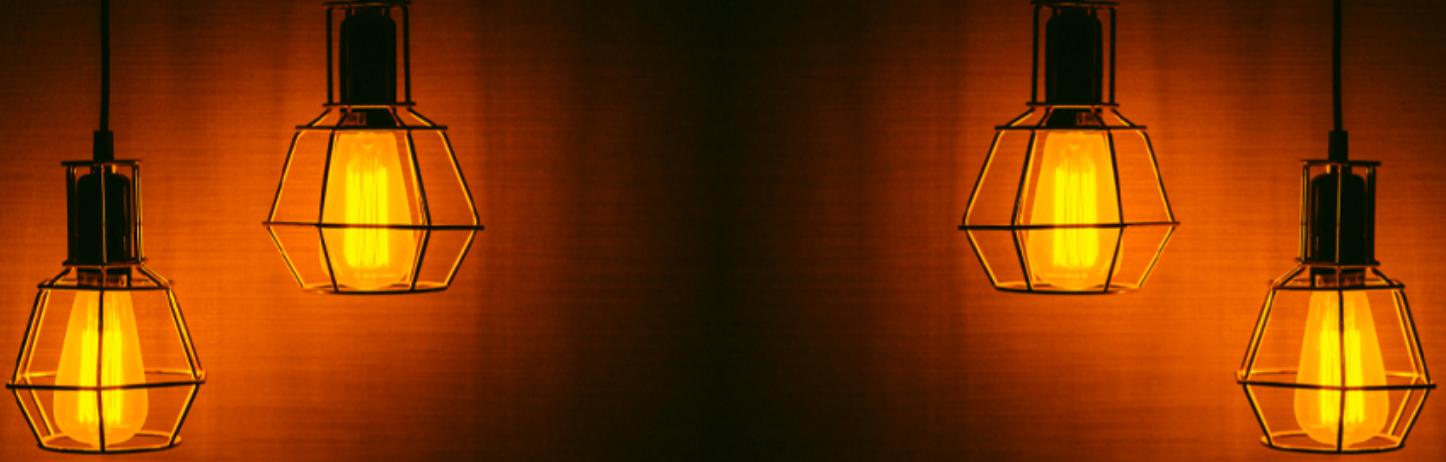

- Entry to the competition is open to students who have a valid institutional ID Card.
- Each entrant can have upto 2 poems, maximum. However, participants can also focus entirely on one poem.
- Each entry must be of a poem no longer than 20 lines.
- Each entry must have a title. Titles and blank lines between stanzas are not included in the line count.
- Poem(s) must be entirely the original work of the entrant. Entries must never have been published, self-published, published on any website or broadcast in any form nor currently entered in any other competition. The poem(s) must not have won a prize in any previous competition.
- Poem(s) can be bilingual.
- The entrants will have 10 minutes to recite your poem(s). Exceeding the time-limit will lead to disqualification.
- The verdict of the organisers/judges is final.

Spell Bee

Event Description: Spelling is an important aspect of both reading fluency and creative writing. A spelling bee is a competition in which contestants are asked to spell a broad selection of words, usually with a varying degree of difficulty. To compete, contestants must memorize the spellings of words as written in dictionaries, and recite them accordingly.

Registration: 300/-

Team Size: Individual

Rules

- Entry to the competition is open to students who have a valid institutional ID card.
- Words will be pronounced in English for the participants.
- Spellings are in British English. Ex.: colour (not color), organisation (not organization)
- The competition will have three rounds in total.

> Round One: Preliminary:

- All entrants participate in Round One. You will be given five words to spell. Correct spelling fetches you five points. Wrong spelling results in three minus points. The first six participants qualify for the next round.

> Round Two: Semi-Final:

- Six qualifiers participate in Round Two. Each qualifier gets seven words. Correct spelling fetches you seven points. Wrong spelling results in four minus points. Top three participants of Round Two qualify for the final.

> Round Three: Final:

- Top three qualifiers of Round Two participate in the final. Each qualifier will be given ten words. Correct spelling fetches you ten points. Wrong spelling results in five minus points. One with the highest points in Round Three wins the competition.
- In case of tie between candidates in the three rounds, we will have 'sudden death'. Same word will be pronounced for the tied candidates. One who spells the word correctly qualifies to the next round. If both spell the word correctly, we carry on with 'sudden death' until someone fails to get the spelling right.
- The verdict of the organisers/judges are final.

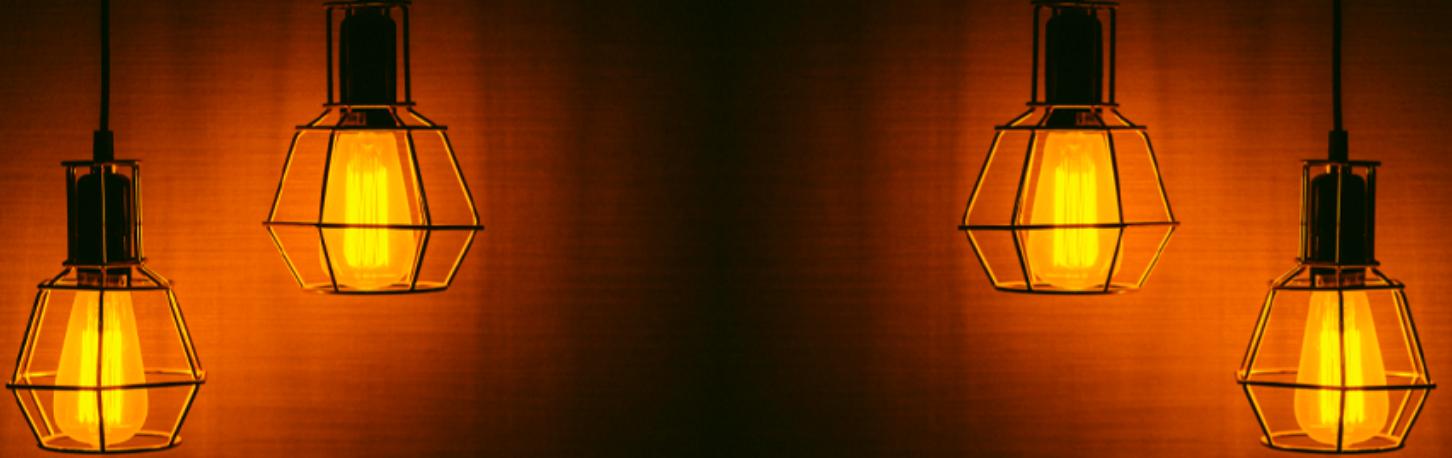

Grammar Nazi

(Just a minute)

Event Description: People get corrected on their language all the time. With written language, this is mostly about spelling and punctuation. In some cases, though, – especially when speaking – we’re pulled up on our grammar. Whatever you think about “grammar Nazis”, there are some times when they are just plain wrong. Here are five examples of grammar you may have been pulled up on which make no sense at all, grammatically speaking.

Registration: 200/-

Team Size: Individual

Rules

- Topics will be announced on the spot to each participant.
- 1 minute will be a time limit to speak on the topic.
- Spontaneity, Method, Content, and Fluency will be the criterias to judge the event.
- The participants should use only English language.
- No deviation, No repetition and No stuttering allowed while performing the act.
- No copied statements from other sources or any idea of plagiarism is allowed.
- No obscene or any scornful statement towards any religion, caste, humanity is allowed.

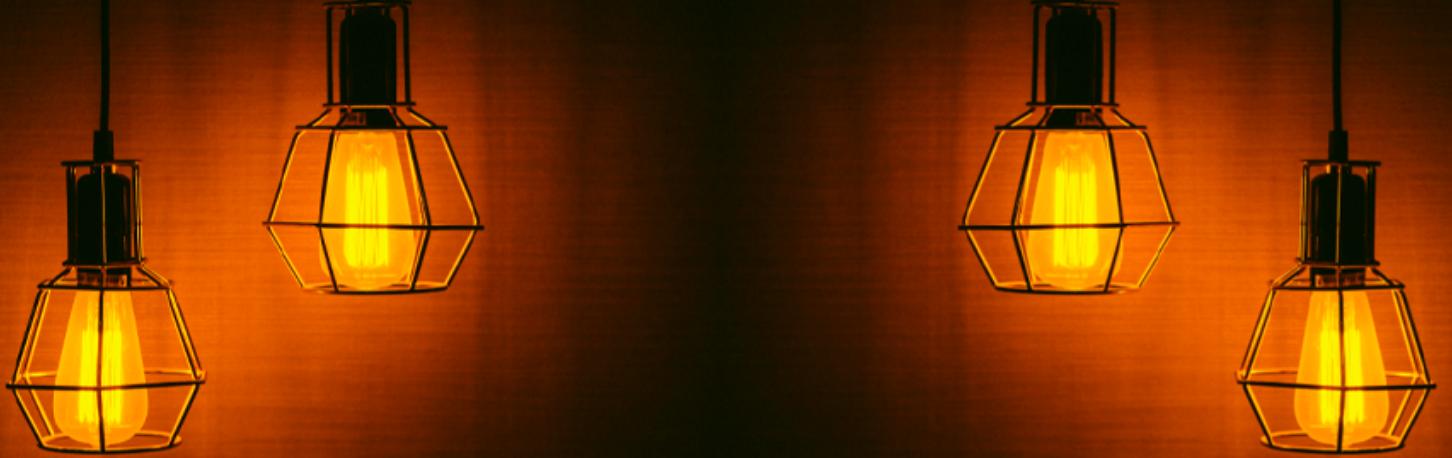

Tell A Tale (Story Telling)

Event Description: The reader's experience is not just about the timeline in your story—whether your story describes an hour, one day, or three decades. It's about how fast or slow the time seems to pass. It's subjective. A fast-paced story keeps readers on the edge of their seats, eager to know what's happening. There's a lot of action. The storytelling is vivid and dramatic. In contrast, a slow-paced story is more atmospheric. The author takes ample time to describe the scenery. Scenery descriptions can be beautiful and engaging, but if the description isn't compelling or the sentences jar, readers start yawning.

Registration: 300/-

Team Size: Individual

Rules

- Topic will be provided on the spot
- One (1) minute will be given to think
- Time limit will be 3- 5 minutes
- Story must be in English language
- The story must not include any language or content that is inappropriate or offensive
